BY = LAWS
OF THE
COMMANDERY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS.

AS AMENDED OCTOBER 13, 1892.

BY-LAW I.

MEETINGS.

The stated meetings of this Commandery shall be held on the second Thursday of each month, excepting the months of July, August and September, at such place and hour as may be designated by the Board of Officers, unless otherwise ordered.

BY-LAW II.

APPLICATIONS FOR MEMBERSHIP.

Applications for membership in this Commandery shall be forwarded to the Recorder at least fifteen days before the stated meeting to which the application is to be presented, and shall not be acted on by the Commandery until the second stated meeting thereafter. The Recorder shall publish the names of the applicants, with their rank, command, present business and address, in the two succeeding circulars. 2

The application shall be accompanied by the admission fee and dues for the current year, which shall be refunded in case of non-election.

BY-LAW III.

SIGNING OF APPLICATIONS.

Applications for membership in this Commandery should not be signed by members having no personal acquaintance with the candidates.

The signer of an application for membership should attend the meeting at which his candidate is to be balloted for, and answer any question that may be put to him by members.

BY-LAW IV.

COMPANIONS OF THE THIRD CLASS

Applications for membership in the Third Class shall be presented to and acted upon by the Board of Officers, and if approved, shall then be referred to the Commandery for its action.

BY-LAW V.

CLASSIFICATION OF COMPANIONS.

Companions residing, stationed, or doing business within the limits of Cook County, State of Illinois, shall be classified and assessed as Resident Companions. All other Companions shall be classified and assessed as Non-Resident Companions.

BY-LAW VI.

NEWLY ELECTED COMPANIONS.

No candidate, or newly elected Companion, shall be admitted to the rooms of the Commandery, or be installed, until the next meeting after his election.

BY-LAW VII.

DUES.

The admission fee of this Commandery shall be Twenty-five Dollars ($25).

The yearly dues of Resident Companions shall be Fifteen Dollars ($15), and the yearly dues of Non-Resident Companions shall be Five Dollars ($5), payable annually in January, in advance.

The dues of Resident Companions elected at or after the March meeting, and before the June meeting, shall be for the remainder of the year in which they are elected, two-thirds of the yearly dues, or Ten Dollars ($10) each. The dues of Resident Companions elected at or after the June meeting shall be for the remainder of the year in which they are elected, one-third of the yearly dues, or Five Dollars ($5) each.

The dues of Non-Resident Companions elected at or after the May meeting shall be for the remainder of the year in which they are elected, one-half of the yearly dues, or Two and One-half Dollars ($2.50) each.

BY-LAW VIII.

ARREARS OF DUES.

The annual dues of the Order are payable in advance, and on the first day of January in each year. If a Companion's dues shall not be paid on or before the stated meeting of the Commandery in the month of May, it shall be the duty of the Recorder to post the Companion's name, with the amount of his dues, in the Assembly room of the Commandery.

BY-LAW IX.

FUNDS.

The sums of money paid for the commutation of annual assessments shall be known as the Commutation Fund.

The sums of money deposited to the credit of the Commandery in various savings banks or elsewhere, or invested in securities, shall be known as the Permanent Fund.

The Treasurer shall invest the moneys in his hands belonging to the Permanent Fund in such manner as the Board of Officers shall direct.

No moneys shall be withdrawn from the Permanent Fund, for any purpose whatever, unless sanctioned by a three-fourths vote of all members of the Commandery present at a stated meeting.

BY-LAW X.

NOMINATION OF OFFICERS.

A committee of five members shall be appointed by the Commander and announced at the stated meeting of the Commandery in February next preceding the annual stated meeting in May for the election of officers, whose duty it shall be, upon the call of the chairman thereof, to convene and prepare a ticket containing the names of candidates for the respective offices of the Commandery to be elected for the ensuing year. Should there be a dissenting minority, it may prepare a separate ticket in expression of its views. Such ticket or tickets thus prepared shall be reported to the Recorder, on or before the twenty-fifth day of March, who shall print and distribute the same, with the circular notice of the stated meeting next preceding the election. The report aforesaid of such ticket or tickets to the Recorder shall be taken and accepted as the report of said committee, and the committee shall be thereby discharged.

BY-LAW XI.

COMMITTEE ON EXERCISES.

There shall be a standing Committee on Exercises, of five members, appointed by the Commander at the stated meeting in February, or as soon thereafter as practicable.

It shall be the duty of the Committee on Exercises to provide for the literary entertainments of the Commandery, and to attend to such other duties as may be assigned to it.

BY-LAW XII.

LIBRARY COMMITTEE.

The Commander shall annually, as soon after the stated meeting in June as practicable, appoint five members as a committee to be known as the Library Committee, who shall have charge of the library and relics. They shall solicit additions to the same and prepare and maintain a proper catalogue, and make such suggestions to the Board of Officers, from time to time, as in their judgment shall seem best.

BY-LAW XIII.

COMMITTEES.

All committees and officers not otherwise provided for shall be appointed by the Commander. The first-named member of a committee shall act as the chairman thereof.

BY-LAW XIV.

BOARD OF OFFICERS.

Five members of the Board of Officers shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

BY-LAW XV.

SONS OF COMPANIONS.

The Companions of this Commandery shall have the privilege of bringing to the stated meeting of the Commandery in the month of June in each year, such of their sons, under the age of twenty-one years, as would, upon attaining their majority, be eligible to membership.

BY-LAW XVI.

RULES OF ORDER.

"Robert's Rules of Order" shall be the guide of this Commandery in all its deliberations.

BY-LAW XVII.

BY-LAWS.

These By-laws shall not be repealed or amended, nor shall any new by-law be made, unless notice of the appeal or amendment thereof, or of the new by-law proposed, shall have been given at the stated meeting previous to that at which it is moved, nor unless adopted by two-thirds of the members voting.
